Hotel, Restaurant and Spa

North Wales

NOW PART OF THE NATIONAL TRUST
ALL PROFITS TO THE CHARITY

*“Of all the things
the British have invented...
the most perfect,
the most characteristic...
is the well appointed,
well administered,
well filled country house.”*

HENRY JAMES

PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE PERFECT

Standing in over 200 acres of its own parkland to the south of Llandudno with spectacular views of Snowdonia and Conwy Castle, Bodysgallen Hall provides all that is best in country house hospitality.

Beautiful gardens include a rare 17th century parterre of box hedges filled with sweet-scented herbs, a rockery with a cascade, a walled rose garden, and several follies.

The 17th century house has been skilfully and sympathetically restored by Historic House Hotels Limited since 1980, and given to the National Trust in 2008.

Two of the finest rooms are the large entrance hall and first floor drawing room both with oak panelling, splendid fireplaces and stone mullioned windows. They are furnished with antiques and fine pictures.

The hotel has two restaurants, The Dining Room, which holds 3AA Rosettes, and a bistro called 1620, named after the oldest build-date of the Main Hall. Imaginative food is prepared by the award-winning chef using fresh local produce whenever available.

There are fifteen extremely comfortable bedrooms in the hotel, each individually decorated, including four 'Principal Suites' (Mostyn Suite, previous page).

Sixteen cottages, with picturesque names like Pineapple Lodge, Castle View and Gingerbread House are situated in the grounds, and provide self-contained accommodation for guests preferring a greater degree of privacy. The hotel also provides designated access for all.

The former stable block adjacent to the hotel, now known as the Wynn Rooms, has been converted into rooms for meetings and private dining, ideal for conferences, cocktail parties, wedding civil ceremonies/partnerships and other important occasions.

Bodysgallen's Health and Fitness Spa, approached by a short walk through the garden, has been converted from the original stone built farm. It contains a large swimming pool, spa bath, steam room, sauna, relaxation room and club room where meals and drinks are served.

The superb gymnasium has all the latest equipment and fully qualified fitness instructors are on duty.

The Spa also has five beauty treatment rooms with qualified therapists providing the latest treatments using Anne Sémonin (exclusive to Bodysgallen in Wales) and Decléor, and is able to advise clients on the treatments which they will find most beneficial. There is a programme of health and beauty days and half days, and a range of products are available for sale.

Hotel guests have unlimited use of the Spa during their stay at Bodysgallen Hall, and there are cottages suites situated in the immediate vicinity for those who would like to be close to the Spa.

Guests can also play croquet in the gardens. There are several golf courses near the hotel, and riding can be arranged nearby.

Caernarfon Castle

Laburnum Arch at Bodnant Garden

Penrhyn Castle

Bodysgallen lies at the heart of so much history it would take several visits to see it all. Castles at Conwy, Caernarfon, Harlech and Beaumaris are within easy reach. National Trust properties at Plas Newydd on Anglesey, Penrhyn Castle and the beautiful gardens at Bodnant are a “must”, and so are Betws y Coed and the spectacular Swallow Falls.

At Blaenau Ffestiniog one can visit relics of the Industrial Revolution at preserved slate quarries and ride on the narrow gauge steam railway that served them.

The Victorian resort of Llandudno is about a mile away and a drive round the Great Orme provides magnificent views of the North Wales coastline and the Isle of Anglesey.

But for many visitors the best part of being in North Wales is just driving along secluded lanes and narrow mountain roads, leaving the car to explore footpaths and bridleways, and discover some of the most attractive scenery in Europe.
