CHRISTMAS AT HARTWELL

CHRISTMAS AT HARTWELL HAS ALWAYS BEEN A WONDERFUL TIME TO ENJOY THE FESTIVE SEASON AND THE BEST OF EVERYTHING IN THIS REMARKABLE COUNTRY HOUSE.

This marvellous atmosphere will prevail again this year at the magnificent home in exile of King Louis XVIII of France. We are offering a luxurious programme of dining and relaxation to please all tastes for our guests over Christmas.

We will begin on Christmas Eve with a black tie Champagne Reception in our stately drawing rooms followed by Christmas Carols in the vestibule and a splendid four-course dinner with selected wines.

Although Christmas Day itself will be more informal, the dining will be no less impressive. Our Head Chef, Daniel Richardson, has planned a sumptuous five-course luncheon, which will feature both perennial Christmas favourites as well as other winter delicacies. Once again, wines have been individually chosen to complement the courses. The Queen's speech will be shown in our drawing room, with a serving of tea and Christmas cake. In the evening our guests will have the opportunity to sample the delights of our Christmas evening buffet.

Boxing Day will again offer tempting options from the restaurant, both at lunch time and at dinner for our fun Casino evening, whilst also offering guests the chance to relax and be pampered at Hartwell's Spa or perhaps take a drive into the surrounding Buckinghamshire countryside and view the local hunt.

Whatever you choose to do during your time with us we are sure that you will find Hartwell a relaxing and memorable location for your celebrations.
